

Bureau Veritas (BV), founded in 1828, is a global leader in Testing, Inspection and Certification (TIC), delivering high quality services to help clients meet the growing challenges of quality, safety, environmental protection and social responsibility.

We are hiring “Laboratory Chemical Safety Specialist” for “Qatar”

Job Responsibilities

- The Laboratory Chemicals Safety Specialist assists the Laboratory Safety Manager to accomplish activities that are related to protection of human health.
- He/she must understand the safety & health requirements and how research operations relate to those regulations.
- Assist with monitoring and implementation of compliance strategies, policies, procedures, practices, and maintenance of licenses.
- Assist with oversight of the safety & health program of the Organization.
- Assist with the development, implementation and monitoring of the safety & health program, procedures, and practices.
- Identification of process improvements and ensure compliance with safety & health procedures and practices across the organization.
- Conduct safety & health audits and assessments, identifying and suggesting corrective actions for performance deficiencies.
- Verify subcontractors conducting activities, including providing items and services that affect or may affect safety & health, conduct work in accordance with organization’s safety & health procedures/processes.
- Conduct risk assessments and recommend risk reduction strategies. □

Qualifications

- Minimum of five years’ experience or the equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Prefer experience working in a scientific or research oriented environment (Laboratory, University, or Medical Complex).
- Experience successfully working with other team members.
- Experience communicating effectively, both verbally and in writing.
- Evidence of continued professional and personal development.

If you have the relevant qualifications and experience, please forward your cv to qatar@bureauveritas.com